A MODERN VERSION OF THE TWENTY-THIRD PSALM

Science is my shepherd, I shall not want. It maketh me to lie down in an in-a-door bed that will fold away in the daytime, creating the illusion that we have a large ap't.

It sweepeth my wife's floors, washeth her dishes, ordereth her groceries, maintaineth 70 degrees F inside the house, 45 degrees inside the iceless icebox, and 212 degrees on top of the gas stove.

It furnisheth her with radio music, salad recipes and the President's message while she watcheth the scientific things hum and buzz. It restoreth her school-girl complexion, waveth her hair, and maketh her seem altogether youthful.

Meanwhile it leadeth me into strange paths of ethical conduct, where, under the guise of "service" I can continue to fleece my fellowman....and make money, which I need on the first of the month to keep up the bluff that we are prosperous.

Yea, tho I walk thru the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for I will have my tonsils, adenoids and vermiform appendix removed...for Science is with me, its test tube and lab'y findings they comfort me. It prepareth a well filled table before me in the presence of those who are less fortunate in the scramble for place and power; it annointeth my head with Stay-comb: my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I shall dwell...on earth as long as I possibly can, and come to the end with an overwhelming sense of the emptiness of life, and I shall be filled with regrets forever.
